.proficy version 8.6 serial noQ: Not getting expected output from Iteration over Hash in Ruby Given the sample input from_user = 'abc' to_user = '123' # from_user = 'xyz' to_user = '4343' numbers = { 'abc' => '123', 'xyz' => '4321', '123' => '1234', '4343' => '4321', '1234' => '4321', '4321' => '1234' } What i want to get from the Hash is the longest sequence of from_user and to_user from numbers. Expected Output : 1234 Currently, i'm doing it like this, def longest_user_sequence(hash) numbers[hash].each_with_object({}) { |k,v| v.merge(h[k]) } end But i'm not getting the expected output,

longest_user_sequence(numbers) # => {"123"=>{"abc"=>"123"}, "4343"=>{"4343"=>"4321"}}

Please help me out, as I'm new to Ruby and this is really confusing me. A: If you just want to join together the values from each key, Ruby's reduce method does this just fine.

longest_user_sequence(numbers).reduce(:+) # => "1234"

Tag Archive: thermos flask Coffee: The Other Plain Vanilla The other day, I was doing some online research on coffee and came across this video where a podcaster (probably the only podcaster who cares about coffee) was trying to figure out why people don't like their coffee. It was an interesting observation. He used the observation to assume that people who like their coffee don't like coffee. He claimed that people who don't like coffee must have terrible taste buds. Yes. Now, let's do a little experiment. Go outside and find a random tree in a park. Go inside your house and find a container that you use for water. One of the things that is the same in both containers is that they are made of plastic. What is the main

WHAT IS "HIGHEST GRADE CODES" YOU SEE WHEN YOU TRY TO DOWNLOAD GE PROFICY 8.5? Does a real sale of the software exist, or is it only a "thanks for your time" explanation for you to share our products? If it is the latter, please could you tell me what is the utility of this service? A: Does a real sale of the software exist, or is it only a "thanks for your time" explanation for you to share our products? Yes, if you visit the Ge Proficy website, you will find a few professional resources for purchase such as: Proficy 9.5 User Guide (PDF) You will also find a Download section, however it does not provide any download links, as described here: I think it was a very good idea to introduce the website with this question, however this is a naive question, please read through the solution (the link provided by the question) and avoid questions that are very easy to find online. The question is related to a different product, "Proficy 9.5" while the solution you are looking for is related to "Ge Proficy Machine Edition 8.5".
